

Centre for Medical education Technology

All India Institute of Medical Sciences Bhopal

Report of Foundation course organized during 17 August – 13 September 2016

for MBBS I Year 2016-17

As per the recommendations of Academic committee of AIIMS Bhopal, foundation course for first year medical students of 2017 batch held during 16 August -09 September 2017 with following objectives:

- A) To sensitize students towards various aspects of medical education that form foundation for a successful medical career which include:
- B) Provide platform to develop camaraderie and discover talents of students by engagement in sports, debate, and other co-curricular activities. Following topics were covered during the foundation course

No.	Activities/events	Particulars
1	Guest lectures	Expectations of society from medical professionals – By Mr Arun Gurtu; Retd DG Police Madhya Pradesh AYUSH, Dr Juhi Gupta Faculty, Government Homeopathy College Bhopal
2	Lectures	Value of Professionalism and Ethics in Medicine Overview of MBBS course Assessment and evaluation Psycho-social issues and stress management in medical students Communication skills History of Medicine and Evolution of medical knowledge Online resources and e- learning in medicine Why Research? Bio hazards & safety measures How to lead a healthy lifestyle
3	Visits	4 Hospital rotations – observer ship to different OPDs which included rotations to surgery and allied, Medicine and allied, Obstetrics and gynae and allied and Laboratories Field visits- Primary health centre and Urban health centre
4	Group activities	Breaking the ICE Basic life support skills Learning techniques and time management in Professional course

