

National Program on “International Maxillofacial Surgeons Day”

13th February 2018, Tuesday

It has been a constant endeavor of the “Association of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgeons of India (AOMSI)” to increase the visibility, presence, awareness and acceptance of Oral and Maxillo-Facial Surgery in various forums including the medical community and in general public. To further this goal, AOMSI in the year 2013 designated “FEBRUARY 13” as INTERNATIONAL ORAL AND MAXILLO-FACIAL SURGEONS’ DAY

The day has been celebrated with great enthusiasm throughout the nation every year at various centers. In 2018, this day will be celebrated in All India Institute of Medical Sciences Bhopal.
