

Notice

National Level course on Public Health Management is the unique course provided by the Department of Community and Family Medicine, AIIMS Bhopal. It is 5 days short duration course for the public health professional involved at different level of healthcare delivery system. This course will develop the managerial capacity of human resources to strengthen the public health care delivery system and bring the efficiency in the utilization of resources for better healthcare services.

Last date of applying for this course is 20 November 2022. Interested candidates may apply through the given link after payment of registration fee Rs. 5900. This amount includes charges for participant's Kit, two times Snacks and a working lunch per day only.

Participants register themselves for the Public Health Management Course through following link

<https://ee.kobotoolbox.org/x/au7U6fVN>

Course Coordinator

Dr. Surya Bali

Additional Professor

Department of Community & Family Medicine

AIIMS Bhopal