1. INTRODUCTION

AIIMS Bhopal is one of the seven AIIMS apex healthcare institutes being established by the Ministry of Health & Family Welfare, Government of India under the Pradhan Mantri Swasthya Suraksha Yojna (PMSSY). With the aim of correcting regional imbalances in quality tertiary level healthcare in the country, and attaining self sufficiency in graduate and postgraduate medical education and training the PMSSY planned to set up 6 new AIIMS like institutions in under served areas of the country.

These institutions are being established by an Act of Parliament on the lines of the original All India Institute of Medical Sciences in New Delhi which imparts both undergraduate and postgraduate medical education in all its branches and related fields, along with nursing and paramedical training. to bring together in one place educational facilities of the highest order for the training of personnel in all branches of health care activity.

Mission Statement

To establish a centre of excellence in medical education, training, health care and research imbued with scientific culture, compassion for the sick and commitment to serve the underserved.

1. A candidate is allowed to submit application for Two code number only. Code numbers are 101,102, 103& 104.

2. Every candidate can apply for PhD seats in maximum two codes (departments). The question paper for Stage II will be such as to test the competency of the student in the subject in which the candidate wishes to pursue the PhD program. Provisions are also incorporated to address non-specific qualifications like MBBS and MSc Life Sciences. Illustrative examples are given below with the caveat that this is only an example and no comparison is drawn between MD and MSc qualifications:

PhD seats are advertised in departments of Biochemistry, Microbiology, CFM and Paediatrics in this advertisement.

a. Scenario 1: Candidates with MSc in specific subject e.g. Biochemistry / Microbiology will choose to pursue PhD in the subject of PG qualification, hence it will be natural and logical that he /she be asked to appear in Stage II question paper in the subject in which candidate has applied for PhD which is identical to his / her PG qualification.

- b. Scenario 2: Candidates with MBBS / MD qualification can choose to apply for PhD in any of the branches (maximum two codes) because candidates with MBBS / MD qualification have studied and been examined in the subjects in which PhD seats are advertised (Biochemistry, Microbiology, CFM and Paediatrics), during MBBS program, provided that aforementioned qualifications are asked in the concerned project.

Candidates with MSc Life Sciences (wherein the MSc degree certificate mentions only MSc in Life Sciences but doesn't mention any particular subject like Zoology, Botany, Forensic Sciences and candidates with MSc Biotechnology can also apply in two subject codes provided that the eligibility qualification asked against the project titles specifies these degrees.

In the scenario 1 single merit list merit list will be prepared based upon marks obtained in the question paper in which candidate has appeared. In the scenario 2 two merit lists will be prepared if candidate chose to appear in more than one subject code.

3. All seats in single code number (related to a single department) will be clubbed and candidates qualifying for them will be offered the project of their choice (within that code number) based on their merit.

4. Selected candidates who have their own fellowship but apply for 'Seats where fellowship is available in the project' may be offered 'seats where candidates must have their own government fellowship' if these seats remain unfilled after being offered to all selected candidates who have applied in this category.

4. Submission of Application

The applications will be invited on a prescribed Performa. The application form and fees must be submitted by Speed Post/by hand latest by 2nd January, 2020. In the Office of Registrar, AIIMS. Saket nagar, Bhopal- 462020 (M.P).For any postal delay AIIMS, Bhopal is not responsible.
