We are writing this letter to assert that Dimagi Inc. and its affiliated entities, including Dimagi Software Innovations Pvt. Ltd. in India and Dimagi South Africa (PTY) LTD in South Africa are the primary CommCare providers without any other local representation in India.

While other companies provide mobile data platforms and SMS capability, CommCare is the only open-source case management solution that can work fully offline, allows the administrators to quickly create and modify their own content, is HIPAA compliant, multi-lingual, and has integrated SMS support.

Should you have any questions about the above, please feel free to reach out to us at corporate-ops@dimagi.com or 617-549-2214.

Sincerely,

Jonathan Jackson
