Chapter-2

Terms and Condition of the Contract

1. Earnest Money Deposit (EMD)

The Bidder shall furnish along with its tender, earnest money for amount as shown in the Schedule of Tender. The earnest money is required to protect the purchaser against the risk of the bidder's unwarranted conduct as amplified as, in the case of Bank Guarantee furnished from banks outside India (i.e. foreign Banks), it should be authenticated and countersigned by any nationalised bank in India by way of back-to-back counter guarantee.

The earnest money shall be denominated in Indian Rupees or for an equivalent amount in foreign currency. The earnest money shall be furnished in one of the following forms:

- (i) Account Payee Demand Draft
- (ii) Banker's Cheque and
- (iii) FDR
- (iv) Bank Guarantee

The demand draft or banker's cheque shall be drawn on any scheduled bank in India or a commercial bank in the country of the bidder, in favour of the "Director, AIIMS Bhopal", payable at Bhopal. In case of bank guarantee, the same is to be provided from any scheduled bank in India or by a commercial bank in the country of the tenderer as per the format specified under Section XIII in these documents.

The earnest money shall be valid for a period of one year from the date of opening of Technical bid. As validity period of Tender will be of 9 months, the EMD shall be valid for 365 days from Technical Tender opening date.

Unsuccessful bidders' earnest money will be returned to them without any interest, after expiry of the tender validity period, but not later than thirty days after conclusion of the resultant contract. Successful bidder's earnest money will be returned without any interest, after receipt of performance security from that bidder(s).

Earnest Money is required to protect the purchaser against the risk of the Bidder's conduct, which would warrant the forfeiture of the EMD. Earnest money of a Bidder will be forfeited, if the Bidder withdraws or amends its tender or impairs or derogates from the tender in any respect within the period of validity of its tender or if it comes to notice that the information/documents furnished in its tender is incorrect, false, misleading or forged without prejudice to other rights of the purchaser. The successful bidder's earnest money will be forfeited without prejudice to other rights of Purchaser if it fails to furnish the required performance security within the specified period.
